

the glad cafe

(it's a play)

turn over
for more

the glad cafe

"an absolutely wonderful experience"

"a magical, transformative evening"

"there were parts where I was nearly rolling on the ground, but it was more than just funny; it was touching and resonant and full of humanity and spirituality"

A new play, by deirdre burton and tom davis, from somesuch theatre - funny, inventive, intriguing, inspiring. and heart-warming. Join us for a rich and nourishing experience, with plenty of food for thought.

"Why is it called the Glad Cafe? Well, Gladness is what we do. We do other emotions as well, of course, be boring otherwise, but Gladness is our house speciality. We do the complete caboodle, that's what we do, but most of all we do Glad. And how do we do that? You will find out."

when? Friday February 7th 19.30 ~ Saturday February 8th 14.30 and 19.30 ~ Sunday February 9th 14.30 and 19.30 where? the hexagon theatre, midlands arts centre, cannon hill park, birmingham B12 9QH (opposite the edgbaston cricket ground) ~ tickets: £10/£6 from www.macarts.co.uk or 0121 446 3232 ~ more information: on the mac website www.macarts.co.uk and on www.somesuchtheatre.com

our thanks to the Kitchen Garden Cafe in Kings Heath for lending us their wonderful space to take photos ~ www.kitchengardencafe.co.uk